

Date: _____
(update semi-annually)

Vitae

Bill Gronemeier

Grayson County College
Instructor, Collision Repair Technologies
Work Force Education
6101 Grayson Drive
Denison, Texas 75020
Office Phone: (903)415-8715
gronemeierb@grayson.edu
Career and Technologies Center

Education

AA Liberal Arts – College of Sequoias, Visalia, CA., 1983
AAS Collision Repair Technology, Grayson County College, 1988
BS Business Management, Southeastern Oklahoma State University, 1991

Teaching Experience

I am prepared to teach and I am currently teaching the following courses:

- ABDR 1519 – Basic Metal Repair
- ABDR 1431 – Basic Refinishing
- ABDR 1555 – Minor Metal Repair
- ABDR 1558 – Intermediate Refinishing
- ABDR 1411 – Measurement and Repair Procedures
- ABDR 2502 – Mechanical and Electrical Systems
- ABDR 1453 – Fiberglass Repair
- ABDR 2355 – Estimating

Professional Experience

2009 – Present Program Director/Instructor, Grayson County College
2005 – 2008 Electronic Technology, USPS
1999 – 2004 Adjunct Instructor, Street Rod & Custom, Grayson County College
1976 – 1980 USAF, Aircraft Electronics Mechanic
1973 – 1976 Automotive Mechanic

Honors and Awards

- Graduate Deans List 1988
- Phi Beta Capa

Association Memberships

- Denison Rotary Club

Professional Presentations

Publications and Papers

Languages

- English

Professional Development

- Metal Fabrication Class-Hammerfab, Liberty Hill, Tx, 2019
- Metal Fabrication Training – Detroit, Dagger Tools, 2017
- Aluminum Repair Technology, SEMA Training Workshop, 2016
- Chief University, Computerized Measuring Training, 2015
- Chief University, Unitized Body Analysis and Repair Training, 2013