

Angela L. Johnson

HIGHER EDUCATION PROFESSIONAL PROFILE

Instructor/Professor with experience in facilitating, instructing and lecturing in the areas of research, writing, critical thinking; creative thinking and digital literacy. Successful in bringing meaningful learning in the course competencies, by proactively supporting all facets of the learning environment, and encouraging a culture of learning that values mutual responsibility, life-long learning, diversity, and ethics as well as personal and professional development. Embraces challenges by bringing initiative, enthusiasm and determination to accomplish course objectives. Committed to holistic student development and learning experience.

EDUCATION

Ph. D. (candidate) in Rhetoric

Texas Woman's University

Expected May 2021

M.A. in English

Texas Woman's University

May 2017

M.L.S. in Library Science

Texas Woman's University

May 2012

M.A. in Liberal Arts

Southern Methodist University

May 2009

B. A. in English

University of New Orleans

August 2005

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Grayson College, Denison, Texas

2018- present

- Teaching Experience:
- ENGL 1301
- ENGL 1302

Universal Academy, Coppell, Texas

2015- present

- Reports to the Associate Superintendent of school and is responsible for instructing students in information literacy and research practices. Serves as a reading curriculum resource and assists staff and students in using research resources.
- Plans and organizes diverse lesson plans and teaches multiple grade levels.
- Manages library collection, processes and inventory

Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas Research Instructor

Summer 2014

- Reported to the McNair Scholars Program Director and was responsible for instructing students in accordance with Program policy and procedures. Responsibilities included teaching a variety of lecture courses in Research Methodology by demonstrating creativity and innovation in the field, service in the profession, and community.
- Planned and organized lesson plans, research and reference materials, syllabi, and other learning aids.
- Maintained office hours to assist students.

Southern Methodist University, Dallas, Texas
Research Librarian

2013-2014

- Provide research service to students, faculty, and staff
- Maintain research area and supervise student assistants
- Instruct patrons on use of computer technology resources
- Assist with MS Excel project

Texas Woman's University, Denton, Texas
Graduate Teaching Assistant

2011- 2015

- Support online teaching and instructional design
- Answer student questions
- Grade student projects
- Perform Research
- Maintains office hours to assist students.

University of Texas at Arlington, Arlington, Texas
Reference Assistant/Information Literacy Assistant

2009- 2011

- Provided research assistance to faculty, staff and students
- Instructed library patrons on how to use library resources
- Created/maintained online publications including GIS project

AFFILIATIONS

Sigma Tau Delta, Texas Library Association, Phi Kappa Phi Honor Society, National Council of Teachers of English, Society of Technical Communication, SCMLA

PRESENTATIONS

"John Mason Brewer"- South Central Modern Language Association Conference	2017
"Black Populism"—Conference on College Composition and Communication	2019

